

Nidal Dabghi

“The EET program is demanding yet rewarding. It afforded me the opportunity to realize that perseverance and dedication can overcome challenges. Of all the skills that I learned in this program, the ones that I have found most helpful in my career are the having the ability to resolve complex problems using logical reasoning and understanding the tenacity that is required to persevere and focus in the face of such problems.”

- Nidal Dabghi, Director- Construction Management at SaskPower