

Potential Moose Jaw Area Power Station Project Combined Cycle Gas Facility

December 21, 2018

PRESENTATION OVERVIEW

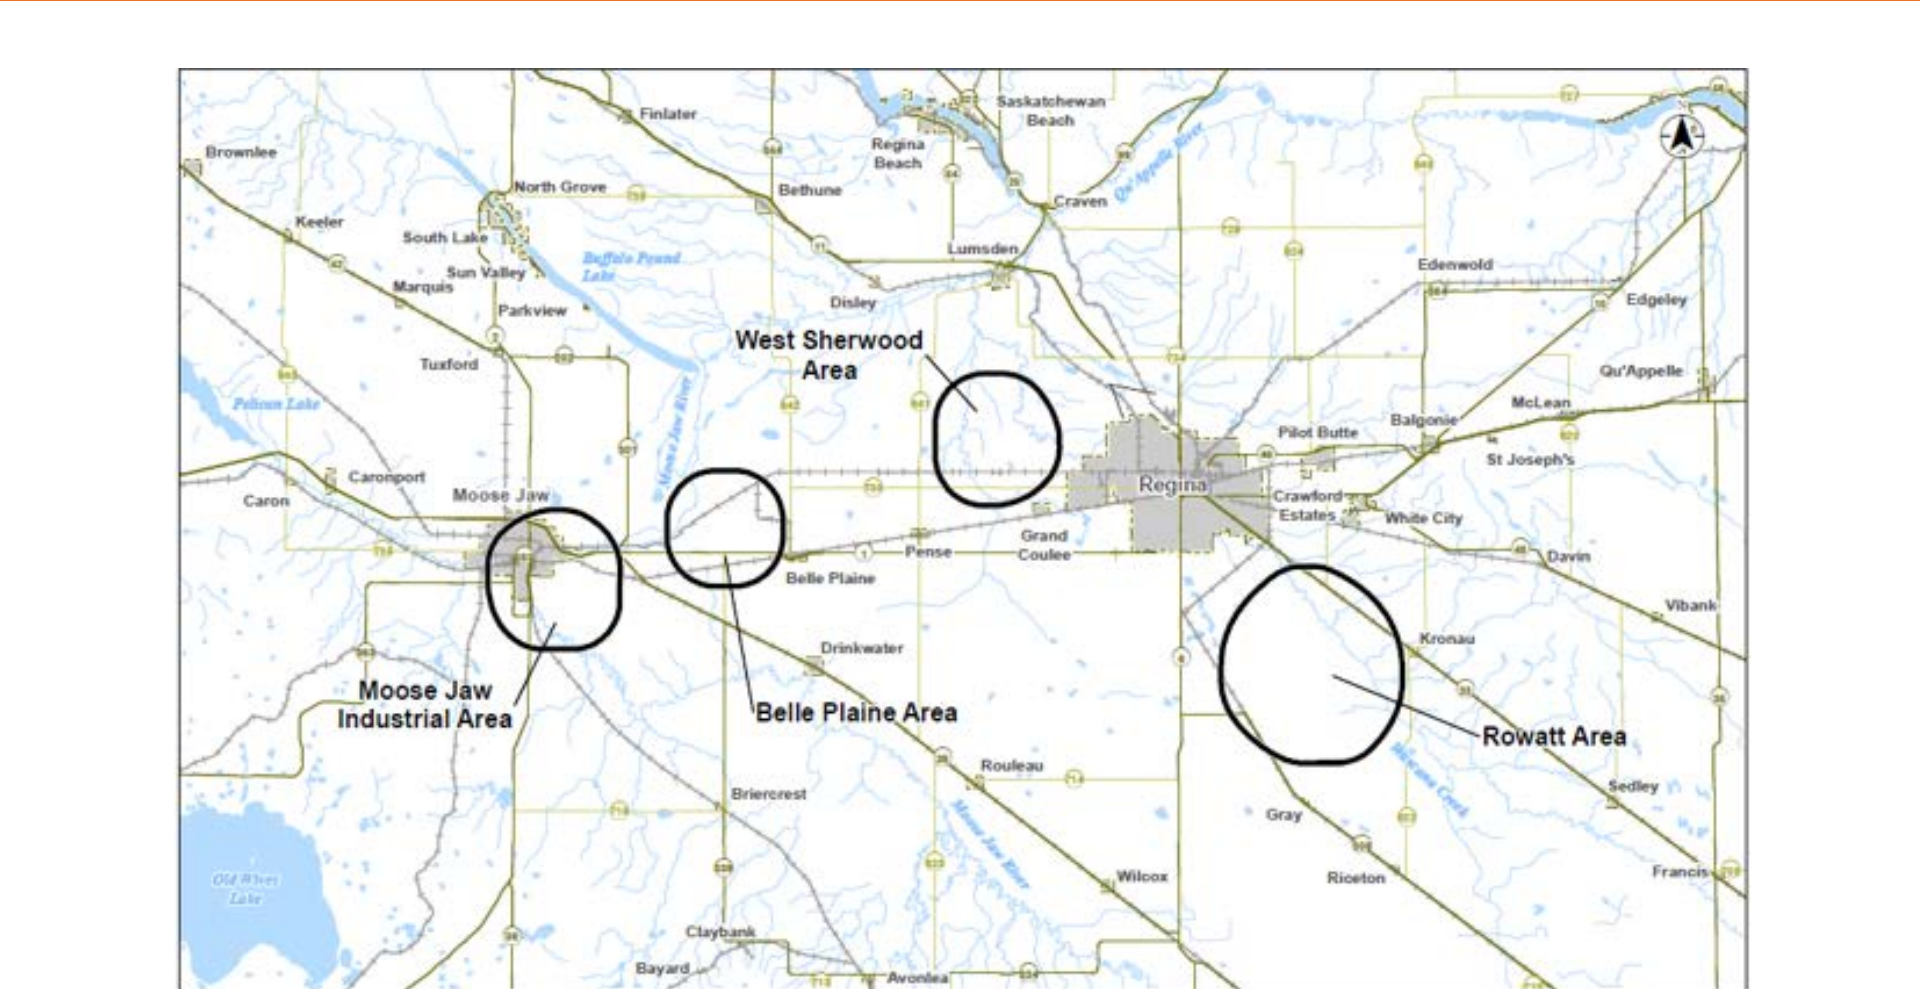

- The need for new generation
- The site selection process
- The proposed project
- Benefits to Moose Jaw
- SaskPower's needs and next steps

Our goal:

40%

reduction in emissions by 2030,
relative to 2005 levels

SITE SELECTION PROCESS

PROPOSED SITE- MOOSE JAW'S INDUSTRIAL PARK

CHINOOK POWER STATION

How does this project benefit Moose Jaw?

“The economic stimulus that has resulted from this project is staggering and will have a lasting impact on our community.”

- Mayor Denis Perrault, Swift Current

- Economic benefits to the community
- Becomes an anchor tenant to the industrial park

SASKPOWER'S NEEDS AND NEXT STEPS

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---------------|
| • Land option | December 2018 |
| • Approvals | Early 2019 |
| • Community engagement | Ongoing |
| • Federal Environmental Submission | Spring 2019 |
| • Provincial Environmental Submission | Summer 2019 |
| • Begin construction | 2020 |
| • In service | 2023 - 2024 |

Schedule contingent on regulatory review and approval

